The Case

A Health and Safety Mock Trial will be held. In the case you will hear how a Company had a worker who was critically injured while clearing sand from a moving conveyor belt. The injured worker was the Dispatcher for a ready-mix company and was working alone the day of the accident.

At the Mock Trial, the Crown will present its case and argue why there should be a conviction on the three (3) charges against the Company. The Defence will also present its case defending the matter.

Participants will hear from a Ministry of Labour Inspector and Crown witnesses as well as witnesses for the Defence during the Mock Trial. At that end of the Mock Trial, audience members will be asked to provide their verdict on the trial. Thereafter the audience will be provided with the actual outcome of the trial.
